

Starting from 13th January, Khatib Central was lit up with lanterns and festive lights. The lights brought a festive atmosphere to the area, and hopefully will attract more shoppers to do their Lunar New Year shopping in the area.

The 800 participants who attended the light-up ceremony were treated to a great variety show. As usual, Er. Dr. Lee Bee Wah was there to celebrate with her residents.

